Resources for Worship, 11am

*Congregational Prayer

Almighty and personal God, it is often easier to see You and Your power in dramatic aspects of creation than to see You in our own lives. The vastness of the night sky, the endless rolling of the waves in the ocean, the enormity of the mountains, the innumerable leaves of the trees on the all the hillsides of the Blue Ridge that fall every autumn and reemerge every spring. Amazing!

But how are You active in our own lives? Give us eyes to see – to see You in our own faith and doubts, to see You in our busy daytime hours, to see You when we are all alone with our thoughts, to see You in our friendships and in our families, to see You in our own hearts. Lord, help us to see You and to trust You, in this and every season, now and always. Amen.
