 Gracious God, thank You for providing people who have shown us Your love and care at various points in our lives. Thank You for the mothers, grandmothers and mother-figures who have helped to raise us. Thank You for those who have prayed for us and shared their faith with us. Thank You for those who have taught us patience and perseverance and forgiveness. Please supply mothers and others filling those roles today with love and energy and wisdom and hope. Remind them that they can draw from your ever-flowing spring of love. For Your glory. Amen.
